JOEL B. ZWEIBEL RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, Joel B. Zweibel, was for many years a very valued Conferee of the National Bankruptcy Conference;

WHEREAS, he served as an officer as Treasurer and as a member of the Executive Committee of the Conference;

WHEREAS, he contributed significantly to the Conference through his committee work and his insightful comments at our meetings;

WHEREAS, Joel's contributions to the improvements of law and the legal systems included not only his work for the Conference but also his influence as a leading bankruptcy practitioner in several of the nation's leading law firms where he served as the head of the practice in each firm;

WHEREAS, during Joel's long and glorious tenure at the bar from 1958 to 2003 and thereafter upon his retirement, he served as a mentor and role model to young and seasoned lawyers, as well as aspiring lawyers, so that the bar has been greatly enriched;

WHEREAS, Joel was a good friend to many and deeply admired as a brilliant and wonderful person, teacher and mentor to his colleagues at the bar and especially this Conference;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the National Bankruptcy Conference recognizes the uncommon ability, energy and accomplishments of Joel B. Zweibel and expresses its most sincere condolences to his beloved spouse, Chrystine, his daughters, Emily and Jane, his stepsons, Todd and Jeff, their children and his many mentees whose accomplishments were always a greater source of pride for Joel than his own.

November 13, 2013
National Bankruptcy Conference